Dear Mrs Bell,

RE: Community Transport

I write on behalf of the members of the Bus & Coach Association.

I have previously written to you by email on the 17th February 2014 in relation to the access to the profession directive and non-compliance by the community transport sector when engaged in commercial activity. In my previous email, I provided you with the abbreviated legal opinion from Northern Ireland. This opinion was done by the departmental solicitors and in conjunction with the EU. I await your reply on this matter.

I now write to ask if it would be possible to arrange a meeting with you at a convenient time and date to suite you. The issues I wish to discuss are the 10/71 EC Directive, Driver's CPC Directive, the 91/439 EC Directive and the 1985 Transport Act section 23 (a.)

If you decline to meet with me, I would be grateful if you could provide me with an explanation.

Yours sincerely,

Martin Allen
